Online Boutique Donates 5% of Online Sales to Casa Valentina

MIAMI (November 28, 2006) – Just in time for the holiday shopping season, B.Dazzled! (www.BDazzledJewels.com), an apparel, accessories and gift boutique that caters to a fashion-conscious clientele, is donating 5% of online sales to Casa Valentina, a local non-profit organization providing affordable housing and support services to young women who age out of foster care in our community.

“We’re excited about this philanthropic partnership,” said Sharon Langer, Board Chair of Casa Valentina. “Not only is B.Dazzled! helping us financially, but they are also sincerely interested in getting involved in our program. This is the kind of high-quality relationship we want to have with all of our corporate partners.”

Online shoppers can log on to www.BDazzledJewels.com today to buy great gifts knowing that 5% of sales from their purchases will be contributed to a worthy cause. In addition to giving Casa Valentina a portion of online sales, B.Dazzled! will also provide in-kind donations to Casa Valentina. To date, seven young women have been accepted to the Casa Valentina affordable housing and support services program.

“Philanthropy has been an important part of my business from the start,” said Robin Molan, founder and owner of B.Dazzled!. “I’m an attorney by trade and have worked on behalf of abused and neglected children for years. I’m acutely aware of the challenges faced by the young women served by Casa Valentina, and I’m thrilled to support them through this partnership.”

Casa Valentina was formed in 2004 by a group of concerned women who acknowledged the immense challenges faced by young women who age out of foster care without the life experience, financial stability and support they need to survive on their own. Facing numerous transitional challenges, these young women are vulnerable to prostitution, incarceration, pregnancy, domestic violence, sexual abuse and homelessness. Casa Valentina’s mission is to provide young women in Miami-Dade County who age out of foster care at age 18 with safe, affordable housing and the support services they need to become successful, independent adults.
